

VALUE PROPOSITION

- As a USU Center, CGHE is uniquely postured to access and provide subject matter expertise in all relevant areas for GHE.
- Thanks to CGHE's extensive relationships across the DoD GHE enterprise, Center staff members are able to facilitate connections and collaboration between stakeholders working in the GHE space.
- The Center has historically engaged with 3000+ government, civilians, and military officials in 50+ countries.
- CGHE applies the highest professional standards to its work, with expert program/project design, sound subject matter expertise, and the highest research standards.
- CGHE aims to weave a thread through all DoD GHE activities while ensuring alignment with the National Defense Strategy.

“ USU's CGHE is a crucial element within the University and an invaluable asset for the entire DoD, providing direct support and mission-focused research to the CCMDs on health engagement programs and policies. ”

Jonathan Woodson,
MD, MSS, FASC
USU President
